	)

The government respectfully requests that the Court unseal the entire docket in this matter.

The government appreciates the Court's recent order to unseal certain documents in this case. See Dkt. No. 355. The government initially understood that only the requested set of documents would be necessary for production to defense counsel in United States v. Dua Gurucharan, 21-CR-00511 (N.D. Ill.). After the government's ex parte application, defense counsel in the Gurucharan matter requested that the government provide all documents in this case.

The government is not aware of any further need for the docket to remain under seal to ensure witness safety or otherwise. The undersigned has conferred with counsel for defendant Edwin Ovasapyan, who does not object to this request.

Accordingly, the government moves that the entire docket in this case be unsealed.

1 DATED: September 10, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

2 CRAIG H. MISSAKIAN
